

Merger of Mercury Elevator and Elevator Technos

On October 1, 2025, Mercury Elevator merged with Elevator Technos, a company with high technical capabilities and a strong reputation in the elevator maintenance business. Mercury Elevator will now take over all of Elevator Technos' operations.

Through this merger, we will combine the technological capabilities and service expertise of both companies to provide products and services that offer enhanced safety, reliability, and comfort to our customers. We are confident that merging Mercury Elevator's technological capabilities and brand strength with Elevator Technos' extensive experience will enable us to deliver even higher quality services to our customers.

Mercury Elevator will continue to provide safe and comfortable mobility, always keeping our customers first. We sincerely ask for your continued support.
